DOMINION PARTNERS, L.C.

“Dominion introduced us to Amzak, which had an investment in the metal fabrication and stamping industry. We became interested in partnering with them because of their industry knowledge, vision, and long-term view on growing companies. Having Amzak as a capital partner will allow us to do more for our customers and create additional opportunities for our employees. Dominion was highly skilled at negotiating a transaction that was beneficial to the shareholders while providing an outstanding foundation for the future growth of StampTech. We enjoyed working with the firm and would highly recommend it to others.”
