“Dominion ran a well-organized and confidential process in finding the right buyer for ANCO-Eaglin, allowing me to plan my eventual exit from the business. In Hillside, Dominion delivered a buyer that met my valuation and cultural objectives. Celebrating our 115th anniversary, ANCO has developed a strong brand name in the industry. We are excited about partnering with Hillside as it will operate ANCO independently and facilitate its growth. My employees will all retain their jobs and have continued career opportunities. I would recommend Dominion to other business owners considering the sale of their company.”
