“We started Traffic Safety Solutions (TSS) in 2001 to provide supplies to customers in the road and bridge construction business. With a strong focus on customer satisfaction and disciplined management, it has grown consistently over the years to become the preeminent distributor in the region. In recent years, we received several inquiries from potential buyers and retained Dominion to help us assess whether and how to proceed. With the firm’s assistance, a transaction was completed with Helix. The combined businesses offer an excellent platform for continued growth while providing our people with enhanced career opportunities.”
